

SUMMER SEASON

xippas punta del este

Cono Sur

December 27th 2014 – January 28th 2015. Vernissage: Saturday 28th, 8pm.

Torre Yoo, Av. Roosevelt (Parada 8), Punta del Este. Opening hours: 12-3 pm & 6-10 pm Xippas Gallery is pleased to announce the next season of exhibitions in our space in Punta del Este. The gallery renders tribute to the work of prestigious Latin-American artists under the title "Cono Sur". The title evidences their common geographic location, without any pretention of becoming an artistic category; the exhibition tries to reach beyond the traditional definition of a regional art show. More than 20 artists from Argentina, Brazil and Uruguay will come together to show their works in different medias: sculpture, painting, drawing, photography and installation. The big group of artists participating in the exhibition will include: Cao Guimarães, Marco Maggi, Vik Muniz, Pablo Reinoso, Eduardo Stupía, Janaina Tschäpe, Dani Umpi, among others of the gallery, with the incorporation of outstanding artists of the international scene such as Eduardo Basualdo, Leandro Erlich, Jorge Macchi, Pablo Siquier, Nicolás Uriburu, and many others.

Since its arrival in South American, Xippas Gallery has focused on the exchange of artists between Europe and Latin-America. The spaces of Montevideo and Punta del Este have been developing a program around the works of renowned artists of the contemporary international art scene. In parallel, the European spaces of Xippas Galleries have shown exhibitions of both emerging, and established artists from all over the Cono Sur región.

Punta del Este, the international hot spot in South America during the summer time, is the ideal location for the intercultural exchange that this exhibition Cono Sur proposes.

Este Arte art fair

Este Arte is the international contemporary art fair being launched in January 2015. The fair will include 30 of the world's leading galleries.

To be held annually, it is a cultural, economic, and social event that supports the art market development in the Southern Cone, and empowers both private and institutional collections.

A few days after the opening of "Cono Sur" at the gallery in Punta del este, Xippas Galleries will be participating at the fair, representing a group of outstanding European and American artists: Darren Almond, Peter Halley, Farah Atassi, Vik Muniz, Janaina Tschäpe, Chuck Close, and Vera Lutter.
