Vik Muniz Pictures of magazine 2

June 09 / July 28 2012 - / - Galerie Xippas

The Xippas gallery shows until July 28 a solo exhibition of one of the most brilliant contemporary Brazilian artist, Vik Muniz that we left with his series Pictures of Junk (2005-2011) and the deeply moving film by Lucy Walker on his work, Waste Land.

We find him today with his latest series of nine photographs, Pictures of Magazine 2. Vik Muniz continues to revisit the history of painting through Fantin-Latour, Van Gogh, Manet, Cézanne, and he questions us about our relationship with images and visual overdose produced by our society. By retrieving images from magazines, newspapers, articles and advertisements, he puts light on waste produced by media and makes a parallel between these iconic paintings from the nineteenth century and the new icons of the twenty-first century, the stars. The torn paper becomes the brush stroke and all our imagination is called by Vik Muniz.

We met Vik Muniz during his stay in Paris for the release of the film Waste Land, remember...
